UNIVERSITY BALL.

The annual University ball, which was held in the spacious Conservatorium Hall on Monday night, was a great success. Owing to the efforts of a number of ladies the building presented a most picturesque appearance. Tennis rackets, lacrosse sticks, oars, and other emblems of sport graced the walls of the hall, while ferns, greenery, and flowers in bloom were arranged with artistic skill and taste everywhere and anywhere. Handsomely upholstered and decorated sitting rooms were handy. Shortly after 9 o'clock His Excellency the Governor (Lord Tennyson) and party arrived, and were received by the Vice-Chancellor (Dr. Barlow). The vice-regal set of lancers was composed as follows:—Lord Tennyson and Mrs. Barlow, Dr. Barlow and Lady Tennyson, Lord Richard Nevill and Lady Downer, Mr. H. O. Lethbridge and Mdlle. Dussau, Hon. R. Butler and Mrs. J. H. Gordon, Hon. J. H. Gordon and Mrs. R. Butler, Mr. C. T. Hargrave and Miss H. Kyffin Thomas, Mr. H. J. Whiting and Miss Blue. It was largely owing to the hon. secretaries (Messrs. G. F. Gunson, C. L. Jessop, and F. F. Muecke) and the following committee that the function was such a success:—Misses Guli Hack, H. Kyffin Thomas, and S. Blue, Drs. Barlow and Hornabrook, Professors Bragg, Ennis, and Salmon, and Messrs. G. J. R. Murray, Fred Bevan, L. Gordon, C. T. Hargrave, L. W. Hayward, C. Newland, and H. T. Ward. Coward's string band was responsible for an excellent programme of dances, and Mr. F. Bricknell catered admirably. During the evening His Excellency presented the handsome cup won on Saturday by the Victorian crew to Mr. H. J. Whiting, who received the trophy in behalf of the Victorian University eight.
