

11th. April 1946.

My dear Bartlett,

Thanks for your letter. I am glad to know how the North Carolina proposals have progressed. I imagine that you are wise not to commit yourself all at once, though their set up looks to be very attractive.

Yours sincerely,