

23rd. June 1949.

My dear Bullard,

You absolute scoundrel to be all coming back to England just before the visit you induced me to undertake to Toronto. I only hope you won't be away somewhere else by the time I come back at Easter. Congratulations to you and the whole family, if indeed they like the idea of living at Kew.

Hoping that Belinda is now fully recovered,

sincerely yours,