

Department of Genetics

d/o

-

14 October 1943

Dear Dr Discombe,

I was interested to read your paper on the limits of error of haemocytometer counts, and the manuscript outline of the further paper on eosinophilia. I should judge that both of them would be most helpful contributions.

I am particularly glad that you have dug out and put on record the early work, about 1880, on the precision of haemocytometer counts, since such work is all too easily overlooked and ignored.

Yours sincerely,