

30th September, 1952-

Dear Mr. George,

Thanks for your note. Please do not take a great deal of personal trouble to fish out the facts I was after, as I can probably contrive to find something to the point about anything you find readily available.

Yours sincerely,