11th November, 1955.

Dear Sir Ronald Fisher,

All Fellows of the Society will I am sure be delighted to learn of your most recent distinction which I see has taken the form of the award of the Copley Medal of the Royal Society. We are also very pleased to see that the citation in connection with this award specifically refers to your work in developing the theory and application of statistics. As I have said we should all like to congratulate you very warmly.

Yours sincerely,

(R.F. George)
Hon. Secretary
