

13th July, 1955.

My dear Miss Lucka,

Thank you for letting me know of your change of address. I am sorry you have had another disappointment with the publication of your translation, but I have no doubt that Messrs Oliver and Boyd will do what they say and produce a German edition themselves. I hope this will eventuate in some compensation for all the trouble and disappointment to which you have been put.

Sincerely yours,